

Reset Department Company

Problem definition and request for help are discussed with the client, analyzed and improved where necessary. Based on co-creation, an integrated plan of action, very concrete and immediately implementable, is delivered.

Feedback: 'Your years of business, coach and training experience, and the integrated approach with focus on priorities, quickly led to good results.'

THE RESET HOUSE

Examples

- Merger of two telecom companies. Guidance in cultural integration and dealing with redundancy.
- Merger of two insurance divisions. Restoring trust, tackling cultural differences and creating a socially safe working environment.
- BGuidance of a niche company with unique craftsmanship. Support with urgent credit problems and the development of a realistic and supported business plan.
- Guidance of an SME management. Strengthening the business climate with limited internal management and an experienced unsafe working environment.
- Guidance of a steel company. Improving social safety and developing a clear and feasible strategic roadmap.